Commissioner Says Plans Approved Take Effect In Spring.

Public hearings for proposed treet railway extensions will be called early this fall, it was indicated yesterday by Col. Kutz, Engineer Commissioner, following receipt of the petition of the Cleveland Park Citizens' Association for an extenson of the Capital Traction line along Seventeenth Street orthwest.

It is the plan of Con

Kutz to take up the railway prob-lem immediately following the ap-pointment of a successor to Com-missioner Brownlow. Whatever plans may be approved this fall will be carried out in the spring, Com-nissioner Kutz plans. The Cleveland Park petition was presented by Attorney Conrad Syme. former corporation counsel, and is signed by twenty-nine residents of the Cleveland Park section.

The petition asks that the new line run as follows: Cars of the Capital Traction Company coming over and from Rock Creek Bridge to detour at Seventeenth and U to detour at Seventeenth and U streets northwest; continue on new racks down Seventeenth street to ; run for one block on Connecticut avenue to H street; thence west to Seventeenth street; south on Sev-enteenth street to Pennsylvania av-
